

JAMES TENINTY

Back for more laughs

FOR the past few years, Vivienne Elborne has directed a one-night-only production to benefit the Bexar County Family Justice Center. This year's offering, the comedy Dearly Departed, is getting a second go-round, thanks to the folks at the Cameo Theatre. The show is about a family that comes together (and proceeds to rip one another apart) after the patriarch dies. The cast includes, from left, Katherine Hayes, Gypsy Pantoja and Amy LaPresto. Performances are at 8 p.m. Fridays-Saturdays and 3 p.m. Sundays through March 21 at the Cameo, 1127 E. Commerce St. Tickets cost from $8 to $29.50. Call 210-212-5454 for reservations or visit cameocenter.com to buy tickets online.

— DEBORAH MARTIN